

Caroline Cutliffe

Caroline is a highly experienced and successful Talent and Organisational Development consultant with a proven track record in management and professional development across a diverse and complex industry over a period of 30 years. Able to generate new ideas and use tactical thinking to deliver fast results, she is also passionate about development of tomorrow's workforce through working with local education and the community in partnership with corporate organisations. She is a strong believer in the power of networking for creating opportunities and strategic partnerships and is very enthusiastic with the ability to motivate others through her open and versatile approach.

Living on the Wild Atlantic Way in Ireland, and as a Lowland Leader and member of Mountaineering Ireland, Caroline harnesses the outdoors for herself and others through hiking, running and cold-water dipping.

Specialist Areas

- Management development
- Personal skills

What people say about working with Caroline

"Caroline has a lovely way of engaging with people and getting things done. She builds great rapport and brings energy and fun to group situations – a real asset in the world of training and development."

Caroline's LinkedIn Profile

