

Susie Heale

Susie has over a decade of experience in talent development and consultancy and has worked in internal and external leadership positions, across public, private and charity sectors

Susie's expertise is in helping leaders and managers explore their leadership style for maximum impact, realising potential, enhancing self-awareness and removing barriers to success.

An incredibly resourceful coach, Susie utilises her extensive understanding of people, development, and behaviour to meet her client's needs in the moment. She works with the whole person and pulls from different corners of life for insight and sustainable behaviour shifts.

Striving for the absolute best for others, Susie respects every minute of time in a session, taking time to connect, understand and engage to provide the right balance of backbone and heart for meaningful interactions.

Susie's specialist areas

- Women in leadership
- Communication
- Team dynamics/strengths

What people say about working with Susie

"Authentic, warm, engaging and strengths focused."

Susie's LinkedIn Profile

